EVERYONE who enjoyed Madam Waddingtons Letters of a Diplomats Wife, will be interested in this new collection of letters written by Mrs. George Bancroft, the wife of the historian, during her husbands ministry to the Court of St. James from 1846 to 1849. The letters were written by a remarkable woman and give a picture of a remarkable period. Most of them were in the form of a journal addressed to members of Mrs. Ba. ncrofts family, and they are full of personal ideas and opinions concerning people in the literary and artistic world and in the intimate social and court life into which the writers position introduced her. Her life seemed to her more like a drama...
