Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from County Option in Indiana Fellow Citizens: It is not only the privilege, it is the right and the bounden duty of every man living in a free commonwealth to speak the truth to his fellows, without fear or favor, as God gives him to see and understand the truth, concerning any matter affecting the public welfare. One s countrymen are entitled to the reason for the faith by which he walks. They may not accept his faith, but his reasons for his faith are their just due. This is peculiarly true of one who has held at the hands of his fellows high place in the conduct of the commonwealth s affairs. I am here today to embrace that privilege, to claim that right and discharge that duty concerning a matter which I have long felt and do now feel to be of deep and abiding importance to this people - a people, who, in the light of my many limitations and temperamental defects, have signally honored me, making me thereby their debtor to the end of my days, be they few or many. For months I have not spoken on any public question. But the time has come when conditions in the state and gratitude for past favors compel me to break my silence. I speak disinterestedly. If I know my soul I have no wish but the public good, no desire but the happiness of this people. The fires of self-interest burn low on the hearthstone of my heart. My country has become my larger self, the dearest part of me. I have no machine or organization to promote; no patronage to bestow;...
