Excerpt: . . . 11 premiere example of that is the Island Explorer at Acadia but other parks are benefiting from that program as well. In the sense of our initiatives and management and just general park management we have been developing over the years various tools to try to get us more informed and increase our ability to make better decisions. One is the budget cost project tool. Actually, that is a projection tool. It is a system that is based on past averages and trends, and the current situation in terms of appropriations, so we can model various scenarios into the future. What is critical here obviously is the percent of our park base that is dedicated to payroll versus other costs. When you have a park that has a high percentage of payroll, which many, if not all, of...
