What are the necessary or normal peace expenditures of this Government when economically administered? Second. From what sources have these revenues been derived? Third. Was the revenue derived under the act known as the Dingley Bill sufficient to meet the normal or peace expenditures in the last fiscal year? Fourth. Was it likely to suffice in the present fiscal year except for the war with Spain? Fifth. Will the Dingley Bill with the recent war revenue act combined yield a sufficient revenue to meet the probable future expenditures, assuming that the surplus cash in the Treasury at the beginning of the war and the proceeds of the war loan of $200,000,000 will have sufficed to cover the cost of the war, which may now be assumed? In order to develop the facts in the case the official figures of the last fiscal year will be given and analyzed per capita. These figures will then be compared per capita with the figures of the previous twenty years, 1878 to 1897 inclusive. The per capita method of comparison, often very delusive, is in this case the only fit standard, because it gives an accurate standard of the economy or otherwise of each variation in our fiscal policy, and also because down to the enactment of the recent war revenue measures the...
