It has the endorsement of Baroness Sue Campbell and Sir Tim Brighouse, as well as positive early reviews from the many school leaders we shared it with prior to publication. This book provides a very useful and accessible practical guide for teachers and parents to help them create a positive environment to support young people to build resilience and achieve success. Baroness Sue Campbell CBE There s nothing more important to a young person s learning than resilience . Without it they will never be the people they could become. Teachers are always trying to find ways to help students build it. Here is an invaluable map and set of strategies that will help teachers, parents and youngsters themselves to do just that. I wish I had had it at my side both as a...
