Forced by the family spirits to get a life, Mattie Winston has to train her replacement Amber Harrison to be in charge of all the workings of the Winston estate. Reluctant to make changes in her life, Mattie forms a bond with Amber, when strange accidents start happening which threaten their lives and an unknown ghost makes an appearance. After being rescued by an old flame, Quincy Miller, Mattie faces old wounds of rejection. As the general contractor for Ambers redecoration project, Mattie is in constant contact with Quincy and realizes she still in love with her childhood sweetheart. Amber, learning her new role in the family, wants to discover the identity of the ghost who keeps appearing. After several appearances, Gwen, Ambers distance grandmother, shifts the book into more of Ambers struggle to find out why her grandmother disappeared two hundred years ago without a trace. In a fight to claim her position in the family, Amber searches for clues to solve the mystery. Mattie and Amber are both challenged when the family spirits decides Amber shouldnt be the keeper. Battling for Amber, Mattie realizes she wants a life with Quincy outside the Winston estate. Amber realized the importance of her new spiritual family, and she works to discover how Gwen died. Can these two women achieve their goals Adrenaline pumped through Mattie Winstons veins. Her feet pounded the treadmill. The resounding thud of her sneakers rang through the room. Under her black spandex, her breasts tingled with sweat that trickled between them. She loved to run, but for the last few days her pace was off, her stride stuck in an awkward beat. Weve found a new keeper. The...
