This he now desires gratefully to offer. The result of the encouragement given to his former undertakings, has been a diligent and persevering effort, continued through many years, to collect every particular relating to the history, antiquities, and present state of Worcester, which could contribute to correct and improve the volume he had formerly given to the public. This accumulation of materials, augmented by the suggestions of many judicious friends, has led to the present publication, which appears before the public as an entirely new work. An attempt has been made to compress within a small compass all the historical, descriptive, and statistical details, which residents of the city and county might wish to possess,...
