General Accounting Office, 2003 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)53072490 Excerpt: . . . Major Performance and Accountability Challenges Since the September 11 attacks, the U. S. government has introduced some changes to strengthen the visa process. For example, State has, with the help of other agencies, almost doubled the names and information on 5 persons in the lookout system. In addition, State began seeking new or additional interagency clearances on selected applicants to screen out terrorists, although checks were not always being completed in a thorough or timely manner. Although these actions have strengthened the visa process, opinions and practices among and within overseas posts continue to diverge regarding the authority of consular officers to deny questionable applicants a visa and the role of the visa process in ensuring national security. Similarly, opinions and practices differ regarding the appropriate changes to individual posts visa policies and procedures that need to be made given the need for heightened border security. Figure 5 shows an example of a U. S. visa. 5 In deciding who should receive a visa, State relies on...
