Rejected by society, an untouchable Jewess reaches out to embrace healing. A widow s faith is tested when she faces losing her two sons. A young and broken-hearted captive displays great courage. A mother s love knows no bounds. A prostitute has one chance to escape her past, but can she give up her last scrap of dignity to do it? Will mercy triumph over judgement? A world-weary Samaritan s past is exposed. Nine unforgettable stories of God-encounters that continue to challenge and inspire today! About the Author: Thirty-seven years ago, as a young woman living in South Africa, Beverley Whiting made the ultimate choice to follow God. This decision changed her life forever. Beverley admits that she s made many mistakes but also learnt valuable lessons along the way that have shaped her into the person she is today. She hopes to continue growing and learning every day.
